U/o. No. D. 9204-40/Judl, dated the 26th Sept. 1940

It is reported that the late Mohammad Noori bin Moham mad Effendi died in the Station about 7½ years ago. He had no immoveable properties. After his death, the late Mr.Mohamed Ally, Hajee Ebrahim Hussain and some others appear to have taken an inventory of all his moveable properties which were kept in safe custody by Mr. Mohamed Ally, pending the tracing of the heirs of Mohammad Noori. Later about the year 1937 finding no trace of the heirs, Mr.Mohamed Ally is stated to have sold the moveables and given the proceeds as Charity to a mosque in Bangalore City through Advocate, Mr. A.R.Khaleel of Bangalore City. Mr. Mohamed Ally also died about 1938. There is, at present, no property of the late Mohammad Noori bin Mahdi Effendi in the hands of the sons of Mr.Mohamed Ally.

8 I know late Mohammad Noor alias Mahomed Effendi. He died in the Station about 7½ years ago. He had no immoveable property. After his death late Mr.Yajman Mahomed Ally myself and two or three others took an inventory of his moveables and tried to find out the heirs. As no one was found, later Mr. Mahomed Ally sold the articles and told me that he has given it for charity. I came to know that he had given this amount for repairing a mosque in City.

9 I know that my father was in possession of certain moveables of late Mr.Mahomed Effendi. After finding that no heirs were forthcoming in spite of his best efforts he sold them and gave the money to a mosque in Bangalore City through advocate Mr.A.K. Khaleel of Bangalore City in the year 1937. This amount has not been entered in our accounts. It was kept as anamath and disposed of as such. Along with this amount my father has also given twice or thrice that amount as Charity.
